National Retirement Planning Week® 2019

is proud to announce that he/she will be supporting National Retirement Planning Week® 2019. This national effort to promote awareness of a comprehensive rethinking of retirement planning will be taking place from April 8-12.

For the past four years the National Retirement Planning Coalition®, comprised of the leading educational, consumer advocacy, and financial services organizations, has used National Retirement Planning Week to recognize the ongoing effort to assist Americans plan for retirement. The Coalition, under the leadership of the Insured Retirement Institute, is committed to educating Americans and making retirement planning a national priority.

National Retirement Planning Week and other coalition activities demonstrate that, in spite of developing trends that have made planning for and funding retirement more difficult, it is still possible to rethink retirement and retire on your terms. Comprehensive planning and proper asset management is critical to ensuring financial security. To support its educational and awareness efforts, the Coalition maintains www.RetireOnYourTerms.org, which features life-stage specific resources and tools to assist Americans achieve their long-term financial goals.

During National Retirement Planning Week, the Coalition and its supporters will be offering information and sponsoring activities to communicate important messages about the need for consumers to plan for retirement. With life expectancy increasing and individuals now more responsible for their own retirement savings, access to good sources of retirement information is essential.

National Retirement Planning Week is a perfect time to set goals, evaluate your financial situation and establish a plan of action that will set a path toward retirement security.
